Understanding the Bible Verse About Laughter Is Good Medicine

The phrase “laughter is good medicine” is commonly associated with Proverbs 17:22, which states, “A joyful heart is good medicine, but a crushed spirit dries up the bones.” This verse succinctly links joy and laughter to healing and vitality. The biblical context presents laughter not merely as entertainment but as a restorative force that nourishes the soul and body. The metaphor of medicine in this verse suggests that laughter functions similarly to medicinal remedies by promoting health and preventing deterioration. This understanding invites believers to value joy as essential to spiritual and physical wellness. The Bible uses laughter to contrast despair and sorrow, highlighting its power to uplift and renew.

Context of Proverbs 17:22

Proverbs 17:22 is part of the wisdom literature in the Old Testament, which often contrasts wise behavior with folly. Within this context, the verse underscores the importance of a positive spirit. The “joyful heart” implies an inner disposition of gladness and contentment that naturally expresses itself through laughter. This joy is contrasted with a “crushed spirit,” indicating emotional distress or sadness that negatively affects health. The connection between emotional state and physical well-being reflects biblical holistic health perspectives, where mental and spiritual health are intertwined with bodily health.

Interpretation of “Good Medicine”

The term “good medicine” in this verse metaphorically illustrates laughter’s healing qualities. Medicine in biblical times was understood as substances or treatments that restore health. By equating a joyful heart with good medicine, the scripture elevates laughter to a form of spiritual and emotional therapy. This implies that laughter can counteract negative conditions such as stress, anxiety, and depression. Hence, the Bible encourages cultivating joy as a preventive and restorative practice.

Key Bible Verses Related to Laughter and Healing

Several scriptures across both the Old and New Testaments affirm the value of laughter and joy as elements of divine healing and comfort. These verses provide a comprehensive biblical foundation for understanding how laughter functions as a form of medicine.

Psalms 126:2

This psalm celebrates the joy of restoration: “Then our mouth was filled with laughter, and our tongue with shouts of joy; then they said among the nations, ‘The Lord has done great things for them.’” Here, laughter symbolizes relief and bible verse about laughter is good medicine: Joseph in John, Judas and Jewish Jokes Adam Bradford, 2019-11-14 The gospel of John has been subject to nearly two thousand years of scrutiny. The prevailing view has always been that Jesus' legal father Joseph was dead. In his extraordinary new book, Dr. Bradford brings out clear evidence that Joseph was alive and present in the background of Jesus' ministry. This is of first importance in understanding Jesus' temple interactions with the Pharisees, the Jewish religious lawyers. Dr. Bradford's book also reveals exactly who Judas Iscariot was and why Jesus chose him to be an apostle. As a Jewish-Christian scholar, Dr. Bradford also demonstrates Jesus and John's abundant use of Jewish humour found (but often missed by non-Jews) in this gospel. The book has been described as 'brilliant' by a professor of theology.

Frequently Asked Questions

These 90 devotions encourage you to tend to your own well-being so you can continue to shower care and compassion on others.

bible verse about laughter is good medicine: A Time to Laugh Lisa J Radcliff, 2023-09-11 A grandchild's observation, "Mom-mom, your belly is squishy..." A memory that seems to be on permanent leave... A heart that needs monitoring... A sandwich generation who deals with stinky laundry on one end and toe fungus on the other. A body likened to a leaky tent... Friends and family that keep you laughing and leaking... It's all part of becoming a quinquagenarian--that magical, problematic age between fifty and sixty. Strength and dignity are her clothing, and she laughs at the time to come. (Proverbs 31:25 ESV) Although Lisa J. Radcliff has not felt particularly strong or dignified as she entered the quinquagenarian season, she has found it to be a time to laugh. The inevitable effects of aging, coupled with her natural klutziness, friends who find humor in everything, and knowing God is sovereign allowed her to laugh through the ups and downs of this season of life. Now Lisa is sharing those funny moments of her fifties in a new devotional, A Time to Laugh. It is sure to provide a smile, if not a full-on belly laugh, along with spiritual encouragement. If you're in that same season of life, you'll find Lisa's stories familiar and comforting. You are not alone in wondering what has happened to your memory or your flat stomach. Why not laugh about it together? The highlight of this season for Lisa is her grandchildren. They never disappoint in the things they say, keeping their mom-mom laughing. Their quotes are sprinkled throughout the book with some being turned into heartwarming cartoons. Grandparents will relate to their precious voices, and those awaiting the "grand" season will laugh at the possibilities to come. In A Time to Laugh, Lisa J. Radcliff shares the funny side of this season through true stories of her changing body and mind, the lessons learned in over fifty years, the shenanigans of family and friends, and the antics of kids and grandkids. Even with all the issues that come in the quinquagenarian season of life, it can also be “a time to laugh.”
